

Dress Code:

All dress expectations apply to campers, counselors, and parents attending camp. In order to maintain the intended atmosphere at all times, we ask that no one wear clothing that depicts anything that could be considered un-Christian or anything in poor taste. The Camp Director or Staff reserve the right to ask a camper to change their clothing if it is considered inappropriate. Thank you!

Girl's Clothing:

Girls should wear modest dresses and skirts. Sundresses, low necklines, or split skirts above the knees are not allowed. Knee-length culottes can be worn for activities. Gauchos or long shorts that are called culottes by some are not permitted. Pants are not permitted. Bathing suits should be one-piece. Please bring something to wear over your bathing suit to and from the pool.

Boy's Clothing:

Boys must wear long pants. Shorts, jams, and skinny jeans are not allowed. Athletic and sweat pants may be worn for activities. Net, half, or sleeveless shirts are not allowed.
